

Mr. Owen of Alabama, uniting in the report. Mr. W.

tee had always reported against the purchase of slaves. They therefore obtained the transfer of the case to the committee on Indian affairs, who reported hat after the time allowed by the Constitution ted State. Suit was commenced on the note that bill on every point covered given in table, or constitutional, and I can find no merits in it. Ious. It never found a place in the ma
